RELEASE FROM LIABILITY AND WAIVER OF ALL CLAIMS

By signing this document you waive or give up the right to sue or claim compensation following an accident

In consideration of Athabasca Glacier Icewalks, Ltd., or any employees or agents (herein called the "Company") accepting my application and being permitted to go on a guided glacier hiking trip (herein called an "Icewalk") on lands owned by the Crown, or elsewhere, I agree to this release of claims, waiver of liability and assumption of risks (collectively this "Agreement"). I waive any and all claims I may have against, and release from all liability and agree not to sue: the Company, its owners, employees, mountain guides, agents and representatives (collectively the "Staff"), AND His Majesty the King in Right of Canada, as represented by the Minister of the Environment, for any personal injury, death, property damage or loss sustained by me as a result of my participation in an Icewalk with the Company due to any cause whatsoever including, without limitation: infectious disease contracted through viruses, bacteria, parasites, and fungi which may be transmitted through direct or indirect contact, negligence, including failure by Staff to use such care as a reasonably prudent and careful mountain guide/instructor would use under similar circumstances, breach of contract, or breach of any statutory or other duty of care, including any duty of care owed under any applicable Occupier's Liability legislation on the part of the Company, and further including the failure on the part of the Company to take reasonable steps to safeguard or protect me from the risks, dangers and hazards of participating in an Icewalk.

I am aware that hiking on glaciers and participation in an Icewalk can have extreme dangers and risks, some of which include, but are not limited to:

1. Mountain Terrain:

- Glaciers and mountainous areas with steep slopes in their natural state have obstacles and hazards, are not regularly patrolled or examined and have areas where communication is difficult and rescue and medical treatment may not be available.
- Deep millwells, crevasses, or other holes, fissures or crevices may be hidden from view and not apparent to hikers.

- Glacier ice can be very slippery, and ice conditions can change rapidly, without warning, in a short time or distance.
- Streams on the glacier, or elsewhere, flow rapidly and have slippery banks.

2. Weather: weather conditions may be extreme and can change rapidly without warning. Snow, rain, hail and thunder and lightning can occur at any time of the year, and any time of day or night.

3. Staff Conduct: including the failure on the part of the Company to safeguard or protect me from the risks, dangers and hazards of participation in an Icewalk.

4. Conduct of other Icewalkers: the conduct of other Icewalkers not employed by the Company, whether participating in an Icewalk under the supervision of the Company or as members of the general public.

I willingly accept all the risks of participating in an Icewalk, including without limitation the risks described above and the possibility of personal injury, death, property loss or loss resulting therefrom. I acknowledge that the enjoyment and excitement of glacier hiking is derived in part from hiking or climbing on glaciers and in mountainous terrain and that the inherent risks of glacier hiking contribute to such enjoyment and excitement.

In entering into this Agreement I am not relying on any oral or written representations or statements made by the guide or the Staff including those in any brochures to induce me to participate in an Icewalk.

I confirm that I am of the Age of Majority (full age of eighteen years) and that I have read and understood this Agreement. I agree that this Agreement shall be effective and binding upon my heirs, next of kin, executors, administrators, assigns and representatives, in the event of my death, and that this Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta, and that any litigation involving the parties to this Agreement shall be brought within the Province of Alberta. Children under the age of eighteen must have this waiver signed by a parent or guardian.
